Commercial Bank Acquires Cushing Branch of Texas Bank and Trust

Rusty Rust, President and CEO of Commercial Bank of Texas, N.A., (“CBTx”) announces the acquisition of the Cushing Texas branch of Texas Bank and Trust.

The CBTx bank evaluation team reviewed the purchase with the objective of adding branches in the East Texas market and creating opportunities for loan and deposit growth. The transaction has been approved by the Board of Directors from both banks. Applications to approve the transaction will be filed with the respective regulatory agencies. Closing on the transaction is anticipated to occur in the fourth quarter. Upon the closing, CBTx will take over operations of the Cushing Banking Center in its current location. CBTx will offer Cushing and the surrounding area a full line of financial services, such as home and commercial loans, mobile deposit, online banking, CDs, savings accounts, ATMs and insurance products.

Rust says, “CBTx was founded in 1901 as a cornerstone of the community and we’ve kept that guiding principle in mind as we’ve grown. While longevity in itself is remarkable, what it really reflects is CBTx has a history of meeting the needs of its customers and the communities we serve. We are excited to add the Cushing Branch and the exceptional bankers to our family of banks. CBTx looks forward to serving Cushing and the surrounding area with our wide variety of financial services.”

CBTx is a nationally chartered community-oriented financial institution that offers a full range of banking, trust and insurance services to individuals, businesses and nonprofit organizations. CBTx is a 5 Star Rated Bank by Bauer Financial, an independent bank rating firm.

CBTx currently has 18 branches in 13 communities including Alba, Allen, Bedford, Diboll, Elkhart, Emory, Kennard, Lewisville, Lufkin, Nacogdoches, Palestine, Roxton, and Wells. Several of these communities are similar in size to Cushing, and we understand the importance of being involved in and supporting the communities we serve.
